1. [] GLC) Having been advised by Cover Division that DOD would not have sufficient time to clear the transcript of the Joint Chiefs of Staff's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee on the [] before it was returned to the Committee, I called Mrs. Frances Funk, on the Committee staff, and told her if there was any question about this in connection with future publication of a sanitized version of the transcript to let me know. She said she would confirm that General Westmoreland's response to Senator Symington's question about intelligence activities on [] of the transcript) was deleted and would be in touch with us if there was anything further. While they are sanitizing the transcript, they do not plan immediate publication of the testimony.

3. [] GLC) Jim Ludlum called to say that John Ingersoll, Director, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, planned to meet with Representative Paul Rogers (D., Fla.) in the next few days to brief him on allegations that the Chinese Communist were secretly encouraging drug traffic in Southeast Asia. Ludlum said there was no real evidence to support this claim and added that he would send us a copy of the statement which we were giving Ingersoll for his use in briefing Rogers.
